Dear Mr. Fillion and Ms. Bakhshi:

The Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (Board) and the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) (together, the Agencies) have reviewed the resolution plan submission (2018 Plan) that BNP Paribas (Covered Company) submitted in December 2018, as required by section 165(d) of the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act¹ and the jointly issued Resolution Plan Rule.² The Agencies did not identify shortcomings or deficiencies in the Covered Company's 2018 Plan as a result of this review.

In April 2019, the Agencies invited comment on a proposal (Proposal) to modify the Resolution Plan Rule that would, among other things, adjust the scope of application, submission timeframe, and plan content requirements.³ Until the Agencies finalize the Proposal in a final rule (Final Rule), the current Resolution Plan Rule continues to apply to the Covered Company, including any provisions relating to the next resolution plan submission date.

Accordingly, the Agencies have jointly determined that the Covered Company's next resolution plan submission will be due on July 1, 2021, or such other date that may be specified when the Agencies adopt the Final Rule. The Covered Company should refer to the Final Rule for the content requirements of its subsequent resolution plan submission.

The Covered Company's U.S. repurchase agreement activity is [REDACTED] booked to the parent's balance sheet, but this activity has operational interconnections with the U.S. broker-dealer affiliate -- BNPP Securities Corporation (BNPPSC). This operational dependency may complicate resolution proceedings as it appears that [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]. Though the Covered Company stated that the unavailability of BNPPSC would not have "a material impact on BNPP's operational readiness" to assume all of BNPPSC's activities related to outstanding repurchase agreements, it is not apparent how the parent can assume these activities. The Covered Company's next resolution plan submission should provide a description and analysis of how the Covered Company would assume all activities (including daily operations, oversight, and risk management) to manage the Covered Company's U.S. repurchase agreement activity and describe how these activities would remain uninterrupted in the event of the bankruptcy of BNPP USA and the failure of BNPP's U.S. operations.
